Good morning Ms. Stepp

I am following up on my earlier email from January 4, 2018 (see below). Looking to see if your schedule has any openings over the next few weeks for our client PolyMet to meet with you and provide to you an update on the status of their project.

We recognize that your schedule is busy and appreciate any accommodation you can provide.

I can be reached at this email or via my cell phone number below.

Best regards,

Steve

Subject: Request for Meeting

Good afternoon Cathy,

Congratulations on your appointment!

I am emailing at the request PolyMet Mining. As you may know, PolyMet is in the process of developing a copper-nickel project in Northern Minnesota. We would like to request an opportunity to meet with you and provide an update on the status of the project.

Are there any times available to meet with you later this month...perhaps the week of January 29th?

Please advise,

Best regards,

Steve
